

Lewis, Longman & Walker, P.A., a statewide law firm, is pleased to announce that Melissa Gross-Arnold and Dan Richardson have been elected shareholders of the firm.

Ms. Gross-Arnold joined the firm as a paralegal in 1993 and as an attorney in 2000. She is board certified by the Florida Bar as an expert in City, County, and Local Government Law. Her practice includes representation of public and private sector clients in land use, zoning, submerged lands, water use and water supply, due diligence and access issues.

Mr. Richardson joined in 2004. He has over thirty-two years of experience in private practice and government with particular emphasis on environmental compliance, enforcement defense and transactional issues.

Both Ms. Gross-Arnold and Mr. Richardson received their J.D. from the University of Florida College of Law and practice law in the firm's Jacksonville office

